BLOOMFIELD HILLS, Mich. (AP) - Professional musicians say Julian Pavone is a musical prodigy, even though he still uses a high chair and a pacifier. He's just 20 months old, but he knows how to pound on a set of drums.

Some musicians say the Bloomfield Hills toddler can play the drums so well, it's like he's the reincarnation of a Buddy Rich or Tony Williams.

Julian has even recorded a CD. "Go Baby" will be released in a month. Julian can't reach the bass drums or the high-hat pedals. In fact, he's hardly visible behind a full drum set. Headphones protect his ears when he plays. His favorite bands include the Beatles, Led Zeppelin, Chicago and Rush.

Julian's father has been a drummer for more than 30 years. He discovered his then-three-month-old son's natural talent when he was practicing.
