CLEVELAND, June 23 /PRNewswire/ -- As youngest member of United Drum Line and considered by many, the Tiger Woods of the Music Industry, Julian Pavone shook the world.

Julian has appeared on several national and network television shows, including "Martha Stewart" "Good Morning America," "Inside Edition," "Fox News Dayside," "WGN," "MSNBC" and many other programs. He has also received accolades in newspaper articles throughout the country and from as far away as Italy, China, Brazil and many other countries. He has also performed live on numerous radio stations throughout the country, performed at a VIP party for the Chicago Cubs season home opener, and at "The House of Blues!" in Cleveland. Julian Pavone has released his first CD, "Go Baby!" with legendary bassist Ralphie Armstrong, accompanied by William Winfield III playing percussion on two of the CD's tracks.

With the direction of Mr. William Winfield III, the Founder of the United Drum Line, Cleveland Cavalier's Drum Line Coordinator and Julian's first professional drum instructor, the United Drum Line accolades include; numerous Cleveland Cavalier's Basketball games, Game 7 half-time show of the Detroit Pistons 2006 Play Off Series, performance with Multi-Platinum Recording Artist Raz-B, the founding member of the popular teen R&B/Pop group B2K, the Lupus Walk for charity, the Father's Day Program for East Cleveland, live performances on the Teddy Ted Slammin' Dance Show and the list goes on and on.

Some of the upcoming events they will be performing at will include The Night of One Thousand Drummers in Cleveland Ohio on July 13th and The World's Largest Classic Car Show, the Woodward Dream Cruise, in the Metropolitan Detroit area on August 20th.

The United Drum Line and Julian Pavone would like to extend their thanks to their sponsors, Home Depot and Pro-Mark Drum Sticks.
