

Are you a FlashNews media client? Log in to access full phoner and contact info.

Search FlashNews for other offbeat items...

Find it!

FlashNews provides daily exclusive offbeat pop culture news items for use by radio/TV producers, on-air talent and print/website editors. FlashNews clients receive data which include direct contact numbers to arrange on-air or in-depth interviews. The content on this page does not include contact information and is for private personal viewing only. Non-subscribing media professionals are invited to request a FlashNews trial.

5-year-old Julian knows his chops

28, 2010 17:07 GMT

MACOMB, Mich.

(Wireless Flash - FlashNews) –

Motown music icons

The Contours With Joe Billingslea

have a tiny new bandmate: A five-year-old child.

The group, best known for their 1962
hit “Do You Love
Me,” have just added
Julian Pavone –
“The World’s Youngest Drummer”
– to their band.

He’ll be singing,
dancing, drumming,

and touring with them and bandmember Charles Davis plans to keep the tot happy on the road.

Davis says they’ll have plenty of video games handy and take nap and juice breaks during rehearsals.

Julian will get all the perks of a full-fledged bandmate including adoring fans, a mini Contours uniform, and goodies backstage.

His dad, Bernadino Pavone, says Julian’s only requests before shows are “iced tea and Spider-Man snacks.”

Bernadino says his son is ready for groupies since he already knows how to sign his name for autographs.

Frontman Joe Billingslea likens Julian to a “modern Stevie Wonder” and thinks the kid has serious soul.

© Copyright 2010 Wireless Flash News Inc