5-Year Old Musical Prodigy, Julian Pavone, Joins The Contours

5-Year Old Musical Prodigy, Julian Pavone, Joins Legendary Motown Group

MACOMB, Mich., Feb. 3 /PRNewswire/ -- Motown music icons, The Contours with Joe Billingslea, best known for their 1962 hit "Do You Love Me," have just added Julian Pavone, "The World's Youngest Drummer!"® to their group. Julian will be singing, dancing, drumming, and touring with members, Joe Billingslea, Charles Davis, Al Chisholm, Gary Grier and Odell Jones. Although Julian has a very diligent work ethic, Charles Davis, a 26-year veteran of the group, says they'll have plenty of video games to keep the tot happy on the road. Julian, as a full-fledged group member, will get all the perks including adoring fans, a wardrobe and goodies backstage. His dad, Bernadino Pavone, says Julian's only requests before shows are "chocolate milk and his very own product, Go-Baby Fruit Bars™". Original member Joe Billingslea, who founded THE CONTOURS, likens Julian to a "modern Stevie Wonder" and thinks the kid has serious soul.

THE CONTOURS were signed by Berry Gordy, Jr. as one of Motown's first acts in 1960. During their distinguished careers, they have entertained tens of millions of fans and sold millions of records. They have performed at Radio City Music Hall and at The Apollo Theater. They have also appeared on "American Bandstand", "The Oprah Winfrey Show", "The Montel Williams Show" and several PBS Specials. They are ranked as one of the top 500 R&B artists of all time according to "Top R&B Singles 1952-1995" compiled from Billboard Magazine's charts. They have been nominated for the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and are the recipients of the Smokey Robinson Heroes and Legends Award.

Julian's talent was introduced to the world when he was offered a contract with the Cleveland Cavaliers' drum line at 15 months old. At 20 months old, Julian recorded his first CD, "Go Baby!" with legendary bassist Ralphe Armstrong. He is no stranger to the spotlight, having appeared on more than 100 television and news shows including "The Oprah Winfrey Show", "Good Morning America", "Martha Stewart", "Inside Edition", "Japan TV", "The Maury Show", "FOX News Dayside", "MSNBC", "WGN", and starred in a Korean Documentary.

More recently, WonderWorld Entertainment, producers of multi-award winning children's television, signed Julian to star in and co-host 26 episodes of the show "All You Need is Music".

He will travel to major U.S. cities on a quest to find out about the birth and evolution of various types of music throughout the country. He continues to work on a sophomore CD with four-time Grammy Award winning producer, Michael J. Powell and attends University Liggett School (Class of 2022).

The Contours with Joe Billingslea are currently preparing for their U.S. tour which kicks off in Vegas this April. Julian is rehearsing daily and cannot wait to join the legendary group on stage in the fabulous city.

Justin Beiber| 'Baby' feat Ludicris Debuts at #5 on Billboardd Hot 100

Justin Bieber's Newest Single - 'Baby' Featuring Ludacris Debuts at #5 on the Billboard Hot 100

'BABY' IS THE LEAD TRACK AND THE FIRST NEW SINGLE FROM UPCOMING MY WORLD 2.0 ALBUM, SET FOR MARCH 23rd RELEASE

MY WORLD, debut album on Island Records certified RIAA platinum - with consecutive Top 40 hits: 'One Time,' 'One Less Lonely Girl,' 'Love Me,' and 'Favorite Girl'

Upcoming performances VH1's Pepsi Super Bowl Fan Jam LIVE with Rihanna in South Beach on Feb. 4th

NEW YORK, Feb. 3 /PRNewswire/ -- Teen Island star Justin Bieber's newest single, "Baby" featuring Ludacris is the newest single from his forthcoming album, MY WORLD 2.0. "Baby" officially impacted at Pop and Rhythm radio formats on January 26th, and during the single's first week at radio, it received over 1400 spins, and was the #1 gainer at both Pop and Rhythm.

The next two weeks will be busier than ever for Justin – starting with his most recent appearance at the 52nd annual Grammy Awards telecast on CBS-TV. On Thursday, February 4th, in advance of Super Bowl XLIV Sunday in Miami, Justin will join fellow Def Jam artist Rihanna and an all-star cast of NFL players at the Pepsi Super Bowl Fan Jam LIVE concert in South Beach. VH1 will televise the concert beginning at 9:00 p.m. (ET). The next morning (Friday, February 5th) Justin will perform four songs on the CBS Early Show Miami, as part of their Super Bowl special programming.

MY WORLD (released November 17th) crossed the RIAA platinum plateau in just seven weeks, for U.S. sales in excess of 1 million units. The album contains his premiere quartet of Billboard Hot 100 Top 40 hits, "One Time" (certified RIAA platinum), "One Less Lonely Girl," "Love Me," and "Favorite Girl." Justin is the first solo artist in history to send four songs from a debut album into the Top 40 of the Billboard Hot 100 prior to his album's release.

Now plans call for MY WORLD 2.0 to be issued on March 23rd. "Baby" is the first new track to be released from that upcoming CD. Meanwhile, Justin has surpassed 100 million YouTube.com video views (the first 50 million of them as an amateur starting in 2007, posting renditions of his favorite hip-hop and R&B songs).

Born in Stratford, Ontario, Justin Bieber is a multi-talented pop/soul singer, and a self-taught musician on drums, guitar, piano, and trumpet. His manager Scooter Braun introduced Justin to the music industry in Atlanta two years ago. There he met multi-platinum superstar Usher, who signed the 13 year-old to his first professional deal and formed the RBMG joint-venture label with Braun and Antonio 'L.A.' Reid, Chairman, Island Def Jam Music Group.

Alonzo Mourning & Earvin 'Magic' Johnson Host All-Star Weekend Blowout With 5th Annual 'Zo & Magic 8-Ball Challenge'

Alonzo Mourning and Earvin 'Magic' Johnson Host All-Star Weekend Blowout With 5th Annual 'Zo & Magic 8-Ball Challenge'

Star-Studded Pool Tournament Benefits Alonzo Mourning Charities, The Magic Johnson Foundation & the Tom Joyner Foundation

DALLAS, Feb. 2 /PRNewswire/ -- Commanding an intense tournament that's bigger every year, NBA Legends Alonzo Mourning and Earvin "Magic" Johnson bring an events blowout to Dallas for NBA All-Star Weekend. Starting Thursday, February 11th with "Zo & Magic's 8-Ball Challenge", the blowout includes a Youth Sports Conference and a Louis Vuitton Private Shopping Event hosted by Tracy and Alonzo Mourning through Saturday, February 13th. Mourning and Johnson welcome 2010 partnering with Dallas-based media mogul Tom Joyner, Hosting Sponsor Ford, Sponsoring Partners Ciroc and ESPN, Honorary Chair Mark Cuban, and Master of Ceremonies Dwyane Wade for "Zo & Magic's 8-Ball Challenge".

Says Mourning, "I am excited to host this event alongside Magic once more. It is important that we create opportunities like this one, on a national platform, to bring awareness to the community initiatives we support that impact the lives of many children and their families. This is a fun event where we get the chance to be competitive all for a good cause. Also, having won the tournament for the last two years, I look forward to the challenge."

Mourning and Johnson take over Centennial Hall Thursday, February 11th for "Zo & Magic's 8-Ball Challenge", with Billiards Congress of America referees overseeing competition. Some stars expected include Mario Lopez, Chris Tucker, Common, Chris Paul, Chris Bosh, Martellus Bennett, and Ken Hamlin. Past years have hosted celebrities including Tony Parker & Eva Longoria Parker, Queen Latifah, Kim Kardashian, Reggie Bush, Chris "Ludacris" Bridges, Michael Jordan, Gabrielle Union, Shaquille O'Neal, Jeanette "The Black Widow" Lee, LeBron James and more.

Johnson adds, "I couldn't have asked for a better partner in Alonzo. I'm looking forward to going up against him once again in Dallas. The 8-Ball Challenge sets the tone for All-Star Weekend. It's entertainment at its best. We get to have fun and give back all at the same time."

Friday, February 12th the community spirit continues with the Alonzo Mourning Charities Youth Sports Conference, with 100 male and female athletes from Dallas high schools. Led by Mourning and ESPN Rise at Emmett J. Conrad High School, students and panelists will discuss education, the sports industry, social responsibility, and more. Some panelists include Martellus Bennett, Kenyon Martin, and Kenny Lofton.

Saturday, February 13th the events blowout concludes with the Louis Vuitton Private Shopping Event hosted by Tracy and Alonzo Mourning at NorthPark Center. Invitees can snap up Vuitton's 2010 Cruise Collection, plus a portion will benefit the Honey Shine Mentoring Program, a program of Alonzo Mourning Charities.

Net proceeds will benefit programs supported by Alonzo Mourning Charities, The Magic Johnson Foundation, and the Tom Joyner Foundation, aiding youth, education and community programs. For more information, log onto www.8Ballchallenge.com.

The Hip Hop Project (DVD) (Special Review)

The Hip-Hop Project | DVD

To successfully graduate from a four-year college is an accomplishment in itself. Now imagine spending four years in a very unorthodox, but progressive institution of hard knocks. This school is known as The Hip-Hop Project, the brainchild of Christopher 'Kazi' Rolle, who was orphaned during his childhood in the Bahamas. Kazi, who moved to New York to find his mother who abandoned him while he was a toddler, could have folded up the tent and continued venting his anger in a negative fashion. Yet his vision of encouraging a group of promising hip-hop artists to channel their anger into positive results reveals a musical pot of gold, which is the DVD entitled The Hip-Hop Project.

Besides Kazi's dedication to the students, there were other major players in making this educational experience possible, including executive producer Bruce Willis and music executive Russell Simmons who donated a recording studio for HHP; and the film's co-producer/directors Scott Rosenberg & Matt Ruskin. Rosenberg, the founder of Art Start, was a big factor in getting Kazi's future off the ground and off the streets of New York. Kazi initiated HHP, an umbrella under Art Start, by pounding the streets he once roamed in advertising for his future recording venture. The ultimate twist was finding the right talent who could fore go the gangster rap mentality that is more attractive with the mainstream audience and turn their life stories into life lessons to share with their fellow youth. Once the students were picked, the transformation of Princess, Cannon & Verse from diamonds in the rough to top-notch hip-hop storytellers begins.

Within this eighty-five minute DVD first released in 2007 and re-released January 5th, these aspiring students' journeys are balanced with Kazi's growth as a mentor and sorting out feelings as he tries to reconcile with his mother. The audience also gets to witness their various tribulations which inspired their raps and the irrapport with Kazi through developmental meetings and working in the studio. Watching how these rappers develop their craft and confidence are the defining moments on HHP. Even though Kazi is certainly a key figure that makes HHP tick, there is a bit too much emphasis on his personal life, especially towards the end as he announces his solo career. And occasionally a few of the scenes are drawn out which affect the film's sharp pacing. Otherwise, The Hip-Hop Project spins a wonderful tale of hope and how the power of hip-hop can be used as a creative teaching tool.

Aaron Nigel Releases "Everyone Loves To Dance" (Avail Now)

Acclaimed Kids Artist Aaron Nigel Smith Rocks the Family Music Scene With New Album 'Everyone Loves to Dance' Featuring Superstar Friends Ziggy Marley and Kevin Richardson

LOS ANGELES, CA--(Marketwire - January 22, 2010) - Aaron Nigel Smith assembled an all-star team to create his super cool children's CD "Everyone Loves to Dance," which launched digitally on January 15, 2010. Parents and kids alike are loving these hip original tunes as well as funky new arrangements of popular classics. Ziggy Marley, Kevin Richardson from The Backstreet Boys, DJ DREZ, and local LA artists Rhythm Child rock with Aaron on select songs. Grammy Award-winning mixer Myke Aaron closes out the CD with three pumping dance mixes that keep the whole family jammin'.

Aaron actively promotes the positive effects of music and movement as an integral part of early education through his recordings as well as his enrichment program, FUNdamentals of Music and Movement. Launched in 2002 in Los Angeles, FUNdamentals is now the program of choice for over 100 schools nationwide! The uptempo, hook-filled tunes created for his curriculum get kids literally jumping off the floor while exploring key developmental concepts. His songs have been described as "some of the best targeted music for kids today," and PBS agrees. Aaron was recently invited to join the cast of the Emmy Award-winning PBS Kids show "Between the Lions."

His entertaining stage show has been featured around the country as part of the Ziggy Marley Family Time Tour, Between the Lions Live, NEA Read Across America Tour, Sierra Nevada World Music Festival and Abbott Kinney Festival, as well as NBC/Universal, Sony, Warner Brothers, Paramount and Fox Studios Family Concerts, and the Sierra Nevada World Music and Abbott Kinney Festivals. He received the NAPPA and iParenting awards for his first release, "Let's Pretend," in 2005. Most recently, Aaron collaborated with Ziggy Marley and the Palisades Children's Choir on the new hit Tuff Gong release of Bob Marley songs for kids, "B is for Bob."

Jordin Sparks Designs Pennyroyal Silver Pendant to Benefit

Haiti Relief

Jordin Sparks Designs Pennyroyal Silver Pendant to Benefit Haiti Relief

Sparks' pendant will be available for one week only.

Los Angeles, CA, January 21, 2010 --(PR.com)--Singer and American Idol alum Jordin Sparks' original sketch will be featured on a limited edition Pennyroyal Signature Collection pendant that will help fund mobile medical clinics in Haiti through Sparks Charities, an organization that aims to encourage young people to make a positive impact in their families, communities and world through volunteerism and service.

"I feel very lucky and humbled to be able to take something as simple as a sketch, a piece of silver and the power of music and make a positive impact on people's lives," Pennyroyal's owner and designer, Tim Foster said. "It is a pleasure to work with an artist like Jordin who is so committed to making a difference."

The hand crafted sterling silver pendant was created from Sparks' exact sketch with the words "Suki Desu," which means "I like," or more casually, "I love," in Japanese. Sparks' signature is on the back along with the phrase, "I'm M.A.D. Are You?"

This limited edition piece will be released for one week only beginning on Feb. 3, in conjunction with the Sparks Superbowl experience, and ending on Feb. 10, after which the pendant will be officially retired and never sold again. The pendant can be purchased for $125 at www.pennyroyalsilver.com and will come with a guitar pick, collector's card featuring the original sketch design, and Sparks' signature.

"I'm so excited to be working with Pennyroyal Silver on this project!" says Sparks. "I am trying to teach myself Japanese and love the language. I really like this phrase [Suki Desu] and it inspired the drawing. On the back it says "I'm M.A.D., Are You? It's just my way of encouraging you to do something positive to help someone else."

Right now, Sparks is M.A.D. about the destruction caused by the massive earthquake that devastated Haiti, one of the poorest and least developed countries in the world, so thirty percent of the proceeds will go to Sparks Charities to fund mobile medical clinics in Haiti.

Sparks said, "So technically, by purchasing this pendant you are "M.A.D.!"

About M.A.D.: Jordin and her brother P.J.'s "I'm M.A.D., Are You?" Campaign. M.A.D. stands for

"Making A Difference." The campaign hopes to motivate others to find something they're passionate about, maybe get a little "mad" about it, and funnel that energy into doing something to help another. Get M.A.D. about litter on the side of the road and donate time to a clean-up program or get M.A.D. about sick children in hospitals and take time to visit the Children's Center at a nearby hospital. However big or small, we want you to get M.A.D. and make a difference in your community. It's amazing how wonderful it feels when you know you've made a difference in someone's life. You can become a fan and share your M.A.D. experience on Facebook: www.immadareyou.com/

About Pennyroyal the Signature Collection: Pennyroyal's owner and designer, Tim Foster, a music industry veteran-turned jewelry designer, created the Pennyroyal Signature Collection in order to combine his past experience in the music business with his current jewelry design company to raise money for worthy causes and to help people. In addition to the Signature Collection, Pennyroyal has a full line of limited edition designs and can create custom designs specific to any customer request. Other artists who have contributed sketch designs to the Pennyroyal Signature Collection include actor/musician Jack Black, Adam Lambert, and Cobra Starship. The project raised over $33,000 for MusiCares® in 2009 and Pennyroyal is currently filling the 2010 calendar with sketch designs by a wide range of artists including Jewel, Switchfoot, Owl City and many more. Jason Derulo to Be Honored With Future Icon Award and Perform at the eWorld Music Awards

Artist Sa-Ra Will Receive the New Movement Award

LOS ANGELES, CA--(Marketwire - January 22, 2010) - eWorld Companies, Inc. (PINKSHEETS: EWRC) today announced the honorees and performers for its revolutionary 2010 eWorld Music Awards Show taking place at the world famous Conga Room at L.A. Live on January 27, 2010. The eWorld Music Awards, hosted by MTV VJ Susie Castillo, is a revolutionary music awards show and the first of a new decade celebrating cutting edge artists on the world's only major record label of the future -- the Internet.

The eWorld Music Awards will honor Jason Derülo with the first ever Future Icon Award. Derülo will also perform at this year's eWorld Music Awards. Jason Derülo's debut single, "Whatcha Say" became a huge digital hit last year, reaching #1 in the US, UK and several other countries. Derülo is set to release his self-titled debut album on March 2 of this year which will include "Whatcha Say" and his latest single "In My Head".

SA-RA will receive the eWorld Music Award for New Movement and will be performing at the event. In 2009, SA-RA dropped the critically acclaimed album "Sa-Ra Creative Partners, Nuclear Evolution: The Age of Love." The hip-hop group from Los Angeles has produced and appeared on songs for Kanye West, Andre 3000, Iggy Pop, John Legend, Herbie Hancock, Eryka Badu, Dr. DRE, Common, N.E.R.D and many others. SA-RA is making history as one of the most talked about and highly anticipated acts of the new millennium. The Rej3ctz (Asylum / Warner Brothers) will also be honored by receiving the Creators of the Jerk movement award. Elektrik Red (Radio Killa / Def Jam) will also be performing and others will be announced at a later date.

"We are at change point in a brave new music industry, a new paradigm that finally embraces the Internet. This show highlights the next wave of music icons and the cutting edge technology that will connect them to the world," said Executive Producer Seven Marcus Aurelius.

The eWorld Music Awards Show will be held annually during the week leading up to the Grammy Awards and will feature a wide variety of music awards and recognitions, cutting edge live music performances, and red carpet celebrity appearances. The eWorld Music Awards Show is being Executive Produced by visionary hit maker Seven Marcus Aurelius, multi-platinum, multi-Grammy award winning songwriter & producer, in association with multi Emmy-nominees John Hamilton, a 5-time Producer of the Golden Globes, and Chris Donovan, a 7-time Director of the Independent Spirit Awards. Angel Taylor Named 'VH1 You Oughta Know' Artist on the Rise

Angel Taylor Named 'VH1 You Oughta Know' Artist on the Rise

Broadcast Premiere of 'Like You Do' Video This Saturday, January 16

Debut Album Love Travels Named Best Pop Album of 2009 by iTunes

NEW YORK, Jan. 14 /PRNewswire/ -- Hailed by many as one of the brightest new artists of 2009, Angel Taylor is poised to breakout in 2010.

Love Travels was named iTunes' Best Pop Album of 2009, and now Angel rings in the New Year as the latest 'VH1 You Oughta Know' artist. The network will celebrate Angel's rising star with the broadcast premiere of her first music video, "Like You Do," Saturday, January 16, on "VH1 Top 20 Countdown." She will perform on the network's series "Tough Love" Sunday, January 17, and the video will enter VH1 rotation beginning Monday, January 18.

Additionally, YouOughtaKnow.VH1.com is home to the video for "Like You Do" as well as exclusive interview clips and photos. Angel will also be performing on the VH1 Best Cruise Ever that sets sail from Tampa to Grand Cayman April 15-19, 2010.

Billboard magazine hailed "Like You Do" for its "breezy, sentimental pop" and the "sassier tone" of lyrics that are "striking in their assertion of conflicted desire," while the Associated Press called the album "one of the top debuts of the year." As a "VH1 You Oughta Know" Artist on the Rise, Taylor joins the esteemed ranks of Amy Winehouse, The Fray and label-mate Adele.

Angel spent most of 2009 on the road in support of Love Travels - opening for the likes of Adele, Brett Dennen, Kate Voegele, Brandi Carlile and Five For Fighting - and resumes touring this month with a series of promotional performances, in-store appearances and college campus visits. Visit her website - www.angeltayloronline.com - for details.

She made her television debut October 17, 2009 when she performed "Like You Do" on "The Ellen DeGeneres Show", and her music has been featured on prime time television hits like "One Tree Hill" and "90210."

Love Travels was released in September 2009, and first single "Make Me Believe" has already been downloaded more than a half-million times. "Fresh and honeydew-sweet...her glowing pop tunes will win over fans of both Corinne Bailey Rae and Colbie Caillat," says People magazine, who gave the album a three-out-of-four stars review.

Billboard got it right when they dubbed the 21-year-old singing/songwriting sensation one of their 15 Artists to Watch in 2009 - and she remains one to watch in 2010, when Love Travels promises to take Angel Taylor to even greater heights.

Justin Bieber Concert Tickets | Tour Info

Ticket Liquidator's Ticket of the Week: Justin Bieber Tickets

VERNON, CT--(Marketwire) - Ticket Liquidator, the leading provider of the world's most extensive ticket inventory of hard-to-find, low-priced tickets, now offers Justin Bieber tickets for his current promotional tour at great prices! The Justin Bieber tour will kick off at the Pepsi Super Bowl Fan Jam featuring Rihanna \(tickets\) in Miami Beach on February 4, 2010 before heading to Los Angeles, Uniondale, Boston, Houston and Rosemont in March 2010.

At just fifteen years of age, Canadian pop star Justin Bieber is living the life most teenagers dream of. Bieber began his singing career by posting his own covers of songs by Usher \(tickets\), Chris Brown, Stevie Wonder, Justin Timberlake \(tickets\) and Ne-Yo \(tickets\) on YouTube.

R & B star Usher caught wind of Justin's vocals and introduced him to L.A. Reid of Island Records; the record exec immediately signed him.

Bieber, who has completely avoided the Disney \(tickets\) machine that made pop stars like Miley Cyrus\(tickets\), Demi Lovato\(tickets\) Britney Spears\(tickets\) famous, is quickly rising to the top on Canadian and US music charts. On Bieber's potential, Usher told Rolling Stone Magazine, "He had all of the nuances of a classic artist, very cute, for all the young girls, gotta have that. He had swagger. And most importantly, he had talent." and...

Before releasing his debut album "My World" in November 2009, Justin Bieber appeared on the Ellen Show, Good Morning America and the MTV VMAs. His first single "One Time" reached the top twenty spots on the Canadian Hot 100 and Billboard Hot 100 during its first week.

"According to Def Jam this Much Music Newcomer of the Year is the first artist to have all songs from his debut CD chart on the Billboard Hot 100," stated Alexandra Owens, Media Relations, Ticket Liquidator. "Like Taylor Swift, Justin Bieber is quickly becoming teen America's favorite mainstream artist."

He has shared the stage with Rihanna, John Mayer\(tickets\) and, to the dismay of fans around the globe, broke his foot during a performance with top country star Taylor Swift\(tickets\) this past November in London. Alexandria Bachelier | Alter Ego (Coming April 2010) & Camille | Superman Lover (Coming Soon 2010)

Born

DMS ENTERTAINMENT SIGNS EMERGING MIAMI -BASED POP VOCAL DIVA ALEXANDRA BACHELIER TO EXCLUSIVE RECORDING AGREEMENT

Alexandria Bachelier

Debut Single “All Night” From Former American Idol Contestant Set for Release February 2010 via iTunes with Album To Hit Music Market Place in April; Label Also to Release R&B/Pop Singer CAMILLE with Music Product in 2nd Quarter

New York, NY January 7, 2010---The Miami-based DMS ENTERTAINMENT recently signed Pop Vocal Diva and former American Idol Contestant, ALEXANDRA BACHELIER to an exclusive recording agreement with plans to release her debut single (via i Tunes) and music video “All Night” in February 2010. An alumni of WB’s Reality Show, POPSTARS 1 along with Nicole Scherzinger, former lead singer with THE PUSSYCAT DOLLS and Season one of AMERICAN IDOL (Kelly Clarkson, Justin Guarini), ALEXANDRA is finally receiving her own ‘big break’ with the release of a debut album ALTER EGO on DMS ENTERTAINMENT in April 2010.

“Alexandria is a true discovery! Her voice is phenomenal. She can easily take her place along side of popular Pop Recording Artists such as Katy Perry, Nicole Scherzinger, Fergie and Pink. I am proud to have her on my roster of music artists for 2010!” says MASE, who serves as Executive Producer on Alexandria’s upcoming album and music video.

Born in Miami, Florida, Alexandria has been interested in a singing and dancing since the tender age of 3, beginning with studying Classical Ballet and winning national dance competitions throughout the State of Florida up into her teen years. She also pursued drama, modeling and was involved in Southwest High’s Choir, in which she excelled. At 16, the talented singer knew that music was her destiny. At 18, Alexandria auditioned for WB’s then new reality series, POPSTARS 1, where she beat out thousands of singers from all over the country for a spot in the Final 20. After that wonderful experience, Alexandria worked with a few up and coming music producers, continuing to hone her vocal skills and exposure to the music industry.

Then AMERICAN IDOL happened onto Alexandra's path. The determined young singer auditioned for Season 1 of AMERICAN IDOL, along with Kelly Clarkson and Justin Guarini. Alexandra impressed the judges with her strong vocal chops and corky personality, making it to the final Top Ten with only 3 open spots. However, America said good-bye to Alexandra, opening the door for new and exciting experiences in the music industry. One of those experiences has been meeting Music Producer, MASE who spotted and believed in her talent and signed the stunning performer to a recording contract to DMS ENTERTAINMENT. The result is the upcoming release of singles, "All Night" and "Atten Hut" and music videos from her forthcoming CD, ALTER EGO

Camille

DMS ENTERTAINMENT is also set to release CAMILLE, an up and coming sexy R&B Vocal Diva this spring. Camille's first single and music video SUPERMAN LOVER featuring Casely and produced by MASE will be released March 2010 via iTunes with a forthcoming album to drop early summer. The Music Video is currently on a list of hot music sites and will be officially released to Music Video outlets next month.

"We are extremely excited about Camille. She is poised to emerge as one of the unique music discoveries for 2010, says MASE, born in Libreville Gabon, Africa, who now resides in the States and works from his studio in Miami.

Born Megan "Camille" Vieira, the precocious young girl began to flex her vocal prowess as soon as she could speak. Camille spent most of her childhood in Georgetown, Guyana, honing her R&B/Pop sound by performing regularly at multiple public venues. Even at the tender age of 13, she showed the depth of her talent as the youngest competitor and finalist in the Guyana-based radio show, In Search of the Stars. She also lent her voice to an album of Christmas classics recorded to benefit underserved communities in her native country. She came to the United States in 2005, at the age of 17, with the goal of taking her career to the next level. Recognizing her talent, the University of Miami's prestigious Performing Arts Institute awarded her a full scholarship. There, Camille expanded her skills as a premiere vocalist and songwriter. It was not long after that Camille met and is now currently working in the studio to complete her first album with Producer and Mentor, MASE, CEO of DMS ENTERTAINMENT. Her soon-to-be released single, SUPERMAN LOVER, is sure to be a club favorite with its catchy hook and throbbing base line.

Both Alexandra and Camille will be visiting radio stations and making on local TV appearances in support of the projects this winter. With the assistance of radio promo and marketing teams around the country, DMS ENTERTAINMENT plans on garnering national and international recognition for the CD releases for ALEXANDRA. And CAMILLE.

Omarion Teams Up With Carl's Jr. for New Commercial Featuring Kim Kardashian

Omarion Teams Up With Carl's Jr. for New Commercial Featuring Kim Kardashian

With the Anticipation of His New Album, Omarion Releases Exclusive Video Trilogy

About His Career

LOS ANGELES, CA--(Marketwire - January 6, 2010) - Omarion's music is showcased in the new commercial for Carl's Jr. starring Hollywood socialite Kim Kardashian. The song titled "No One Else" is featured in the seductive ad as Kim Kardashian luxuriously enjoys an apple walnut cranberry salad in her bedroom and then proceeds to take a bath. Within the first week on the web, the YouTube video of the commercial garnered more than a million hits. To view the video visit Omarion's official website <http://www.omariononline.com/?p=194>. Carl's Jr., a fast food franchise located primarily on the West Coast, previously created a major buzz in the advertising world in 2005 with a salacious ad campaign featuring heiress Paris Hilton.

Omarion's forthcoming album "Ollusion" is set to be released on January 12, 2010. Also Omarion's second single "Speedin" went for adds at Urban radio this week and was the #1 most added record for Urban radio on R&R. To listen to "Speedin" visit Omarion's official website at <http://www.omariononline.com/speedin.mp3>. The "Speedin" video will appear on "106 & Park" the day his album drops on January 12th. As well Omarion created another video for his song "Hoodie" as a special tribute to the late King of Pop Michael Jackson. The video, which is reminiscent of Jackson's videos "Bad" and "Beat It," features the singer dancing with his mother. "Hoodie" is a mix between "Bad" and "Beat It" (<http://www.omariononline.com/?p=157>).

Leading up to the debut of his album, Omarion will be releasing a trilogy of videos on YouTube titled "Omarion: The Legacy, Part 1, 2 and 3." The videos will be uploaded every week and will feature footage collected over the years detailing Omarion's career and his rise to the top. Included in the series will be his stint with the mega-popular boy group B2K, hit collaboration with rapper Bow Wow, movies and his success as a solo artist. Viewers can watch Part 1 of the series at <http://www.omariononline.com/?p=190> and view Part 2 at <http://www.omariononline.com/?p=196>.

Omarion recently inked a label deal with Starrworld Entertainment, under the umbrella of EMI Label Services. The album, "Ollusion," will be his first release under the record label. The singer views this album and new opportunity with the label as a chance to take creative control of his music. The singer penned and co-produced all of the songs on the album.

"My style has evolved so much on this album -- I was able to express truly who I am from a creative and artistic standpoint, which allowed me to share a personal side of myself with my fans through my music. This is my masterpiece and I can't wait for the world to hear my new album," Omarion said. "I am very excited about my new home at EMI and know that this is the perfect opportunity for me to return to the charts."

Omarion has released two chart topping solo albums since leaving the multi-platinum selling group B2K. His first solo album, "O," debuted #1 on the Billboard 200 chart. His sophomore album, "21," dominated radio airplay and also debuted #1 on the Billboard 200 chart. The second single from "21," "Ice Box," produced by Timbaland, topped the Billboard Hot 100 chart and was a platinum-selling ringtone.

Omarion collaborated with rapper Bow Wow on his third project post-B2K, "Face Off," which was the number one rap album in the U.S. and number two R&B album. The actor and producer appeared in several films, most notably "You Got Served," which was a #1 box office smash, earning $40 million worldwide. He also added author to his resume in 2004, releasing a solo autobiography titled, "O" on behalf of MTV.

Tino Tomas | Stay (Avail. Now)

Tino Tomas Sings Songs Of Love, Betrayal, or Just Being Happy!

Young R&B/Soul Artist Tino Tomas has released his new album "Stay, " a fun Pop album that displays his excellent vocal range and makes use of several music styles, but primarily Pop, Jazz, and R&B.

"Stay" was produced by accomplished performer and DJ Claudio Mangione using Pro Tools, and contains fifteen songs, which includes the title track "Stay", which is a smooth, slow, and soulful Pop tune. Other tracks include the more Rock-oriented (and aptly titled) "Rock it Right, " the danceable and upbeat "Hands Up, " and "Do It," an interesting experiment in Jazz fusion. Tino's music comes deep from the heart, and his songs are all about emotions, whether they involve love, betrayal, or just being happy and having a good time.

At only 20 years old, Tino Tomas is an accomplished vocalist who has been a part of over three hundred performances since the age of 5, both in the states and abroad. He often performs in both English and Italian. He marks Stevie Wonder, Tina Turner, Marvin Gaye, and Jackie Wilson among his influences. When he isn't performing or recording his music, Tino likes to indulge in his favorite hobby, playing video games.

Tino has received a great deal of prestige and recognition for his talent. In 2005, he was the winner of the R&B Division at Nashville Star Search. In 2006, he performed at Governor Bobby Jindal's inaugural festivities. In 2008, he was nominated for National R&B/Soul Artist of the Year at the Los Angeles Music Awards. Most recently, Tino was placed on the ballot for the 2009 Grammy Awards in a number of categories, including Record of the Year, Song of the Year, and Best New Artist.

Tino is currently performing scheduled shows to promote his new album, including a performance at the LSU Art Show on November 13. His new album "Stay" is currently available from CDBaby iTunes, Napster, and PayPlay. More information about Tino Tomas, as well as samples of his music, are available at www.myspace.com/tinotomas

Tino Tomas is a dedicated vocal and recording artist. For more information visit www.myspace.com/tinotomas

Rayvon's New Single "Back It Up" | Album Coming 2010

GTC ENTERTAINMENT/MDI DISTRIBUTION SET TO RELEASE DEBUT CD SINGLE, "Back It Up" ON POPULAR REGGAE/DANCE HALL RECORDING ARTIST-
RAYVON

Rayvon Set To Make Major Moves With Forthcoming Album in 2010

New York, NY December 21, 2009 – What would you do if you have a proven track record of making hits and was loved by millions of fans? You create a new album and start your own music label, right? That’s exactly what Rayvon did this year and the result is “Back It Up” the debut single set for release for Tuesday, January, 26, 2010 from the forthcoming album set for release in early spring on GTC ENTERTAINMENT via MDI DISTRIBUTION. This project promises to showcase the creative and distinctive sides of the talented recording artist who has been SHAGGY’s long-time music partner (and still is!) and was featured on Shaggy’s hit single, “Angel” from the multi-million-selling MCA album, HOT SHOT.

With the growing popularity of singers (RIHANNA) and Hip Hop Recording artists (Sean Kingston) hailing from the islands close by, the Barbados born Rayvon (who later moved to Brooklyn at the age of 12) first hit the music scene running when he and Shaggy linked up with dancehall beat master, Sting, Int’l. He produced “Big Up”, the tune that propelled the duo to a higher level of exposure in the mid- 90’s. “Nice and Lovely” and a few other minor hits followed, allowing Rayvon and Shaggy the opportunity to tour.

“At the time, I was working for UPS,” Rayvon remembers. “One day I got an offer to do a 2-week tour and I’d used up all of my sick leave and vacation days. So I took a formal leave of absence from the job and I still haven’t returned”.

Then Shaggy’s remake of the Folkes Brothers’ classic rock steady hit, “Oh Carolina” became an international sensation, catapulting the duo on several rounds of world tours, including the Caribbean, the US, Japan, Australia and Europe. Rayvon also branched out to include solo work. His first solo single, “No Guns No Murder” (produced by Frankie Cutlass and Funkmaster Flex) was a massive summer hit that resulted in a debut album, HEAR MY CRY on Virgin Records. The album received critical acclaim and Rayvon received accolades from both the dancehall and hip hop communities. In addition to Rayvon’s solo career, he and Shaggy kept the world party going with international hits like, “In The Summertime”, which rose to #3 on the U.K. music charts and was featured on Shaggy’s Grammy Award Winning album, BOMBASTIC. A few years later, Rayvon and Shaggy were pushed to “dizzying” heights with the huge success of “Angel”. The most played record of 2001 saw the ground-breaking duo on every possible television show, ranging from kid’s morning shows to Late Night With David Letterman.

As a solo artist Rayvon chose to broaden his musical landscape with the addition of hip hop and roots reggae to his already proven smooth Dancehall/R & B sounds on “Back It Up” and the forthcoming (untitled) CD.

Angela “Majette” David- President at GTC Entertainment and Laurie Montgomery, President of

MDI Distribution are confident that Rayvon's R&B and Reggae/Hip Hop style will appeal to CD buyers and Digital down loaders here in the US and abroad. The music label is now preparing a creative marketing/promotion/internet campaign that will involve street promotion strategies in various markets, as well as an extensive national retail campaign for the album. Rayvon will continue to Tour with Shaggy in 2010, but will appear on television media outlets in various markets and conduct radio, newspaper and internet interviews in support of his new CD. The label is (listen to single by clicking here!) also gearing up to present a national BACK IT UP CALENDAR GIRL and VIRAL VIDEO CONTEST surrounding the release date of the single with winners announced on the release date of the full CD (MORE DETAILS TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON)
