Guinness World Records crowns youngest professional drummer

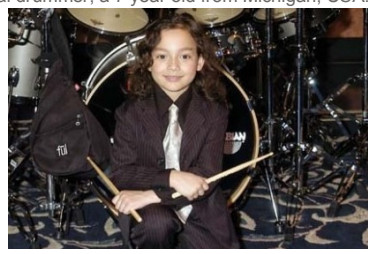

Fri, 15 Jul 2011

Guinness World Records has announced the world's youngest professional drummer, a 7 year old from Michigan, USA.

Julian Pavone, became the youngest member of the Cleveland Cavaliers' Drumline at age 15 months, he then went on to record his first album at the age of 20 months.

The young drummer is also the youngest performer to appear at Hollywood's Whisky A Go-Go venue and if that wasn't all he's even already picked up a Rock 'n' Roll Hall of Fame Lifetime Achievement award!

Take a look at a 6 year old Julian in the below video clip:
