- MediBid.com Empowers Physicians to Expand Their Fee for Service Practice with New Online Portal

With over 45 million uninsured in the United States and a healthcare debate raging hotly over President Barack Obama's plans for health insurance reform in the United States, one visionary company has created a solution to the healthcare issues that transcends traditional boundaries. MediBid connects physicians to patients in a free-market environment without care for their insurance plan or even their native country. The MediBid portal connects patients directly to doctors. Participating physicians can expand their practice by offering medical services to cash paying patients without interference from the medical middlemen who drive costs skyward without improving care. (PRWeb Dec 30, 2009)
