12/1/2011

Guinness World Record Holder Julian Pavone, The World's Youngest Professional Drummer recently received a second patent for his innovative drum gloves. He received patent for Abracadabra Stain Cover-up applicator at age 4 – making him the World's Youngest Inventor. Julian is in the second grade at University Liggett School.

Julian's Drum Gloves are form-fitting gloves with interchangeable drumstick tips on the four finger extensions, on the palm side of the glove. The glove allows the percussor or her hands in creating unique rhythms and sound effects not typically made due to the limitations of a traditional drumstick.

In addition to being an inventor and two-time patent holder, Julian is considered a drumming prodigy. He began playing the drums while sitting on his father's lap at the age months.

At 15 months-old, he was offered a contract to be a member of the Cleveland Cavaliers' drumline making him the youngest member by 16 years! Then, at 20 months-old, Ju a CD, "Go Baby!", with legendary bassist Ralphe Armstrong.

Since then, he has received worldwide media coverage with more than 40,000 newspaper and magazine articles published about him.
