LANSING, Mich., Nov. 9, 2010 /PRNewswire/ -- ALS survivor and clinical psychologist, Dr. Craig Oster, will host an event to thank his sponsors. The Craig Oster Extravaganza will be held in February 2011 and will feature 6-Year-Old Julian Pavone, "The World's Youngest Drummer and Inventor!"[®] who will also help sponsor the event.

Dr. Craig Oster was diagnosed with ALS in 1994. He was told that he would likely die within 3 to 5 years. From that time, Dr. Oster set himself on a healing quest that has been deep, profound, and transformative. Fourteen years later, in 2008, after eventually losing 45 pounds of muscle, he entered hospice barely able to breathe. Even so, Dr. Oster was determined to heal and did not give up. With determination and much loving support, he eventually improved and was able to leave hospice. He has continued to do well and in August 2010, at the ePharmacy and Athletes with Disabilities Network (ADN) Golf Invitational, Dr. Oster was honored with a Rockstar Lifetime Achievement Award for his amazing commitments and contributions.

Dr. Oster is exceptionally mindful of what he puts into his body. He researches studiously to choose products that provide optimal healing value. He does everything possible to assist the natural innate healing forces within his body. He shares his knowledge and inspires hope on the "Healing with Dr. Craig" website and "The Dr. Craig Blog Show".
