LANSING, Mich., Nov. 9, 2010 /PRNewswire/ -- ALS survivor and clinical psychologist, Dr. Craig Oster, will host an event to the Craig Oster Extravaganza will be held in February 2011 and will feature 6-Year-Old Julian Pavone, "The World's Youngest Drummer" who will also help sponsor the event.

Dr. Craig Oster was diagnosed with ALS in 1994. He was told that he would likely die within a year. From that time, Dr. Oster set himself on a healing quest that has been deep, profound, and long. Fourteen years later, in 2008, after eventually losing 45 pounds of muscle, he entered hospice to breathe. Even so, Dr. Oster was determined to heal and did not give up. With determined support, he eventually improved and was able to leave hospice. He has continued to do so through 2010, at the ePharmacy and Athletes with Disabilities Network (ADN) Golf Invitational, and was awarded with a Rockstar Lifetime Achievement Award for his amazing commitments and contributions. Dr. Oster is exceptionally mindful of what he puts into his body. He researches studies and products that provide optimal healing value. He does everything possible to assist the natural healing process within his body. He shares his knowledge and inspires hope on the "Healing with Dr. Craig Oster" Dr. Craig Blog Show".
